PATHWAY

TO SUCCESS

A pathway lies before each man,
Slippery, stony, little used.
The weak will fall along the way
The brave hold promise of success.

The lamp of learning lights the way,
So we may bypass ditches of ignorance.
It brightens the path, our eyes, our souls.

Success is won through togetherness,
Friendship's strong aims guiding our steps
With fellowship, love, and understanding.

Success is gained by intense desire,
A force that yearns for all of life —
Its good, its bad, its tender, its sad.

A force yet more intense is spirit
It is the individual — Yearning
For souls depth, for life's heighth.

Service is the deeds of love
Making the path a springtime road.
A helping hand, a smiling heart

With leadership, success draws near.
The courage to be ahead — to guide
The weak, afraid; the crippled, unsure.

With these arts we walk the path —
Success lies ahead — golden.

FREDRIC G. JUDD

PRINCIPAL

Although an "old timer" in Bay, this year Mr. Judd filled a new role, that of Principal. He had served as assistant principal since 1957. He slipped into his new position with the friendly ease and cordiality which has made him loved by all Bay students. Besides being a pal to the students throughout his years at Bay, he has shown diplomacy and intelligence in handling his new position.

MAX K. LIGGETT

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mr. Max Liggett ably filled the position of assistant principal left by Mr. Judd. It is always difficult for a person to move into a new school system, but the friendly cooperative attitude of the students certainly makes the transition much easier for Mr. Liggett. Besides carrying out his various responsibilities, he has managed to become an understanding friend of all the students.

PATHWAY TO SUCCESS . . .

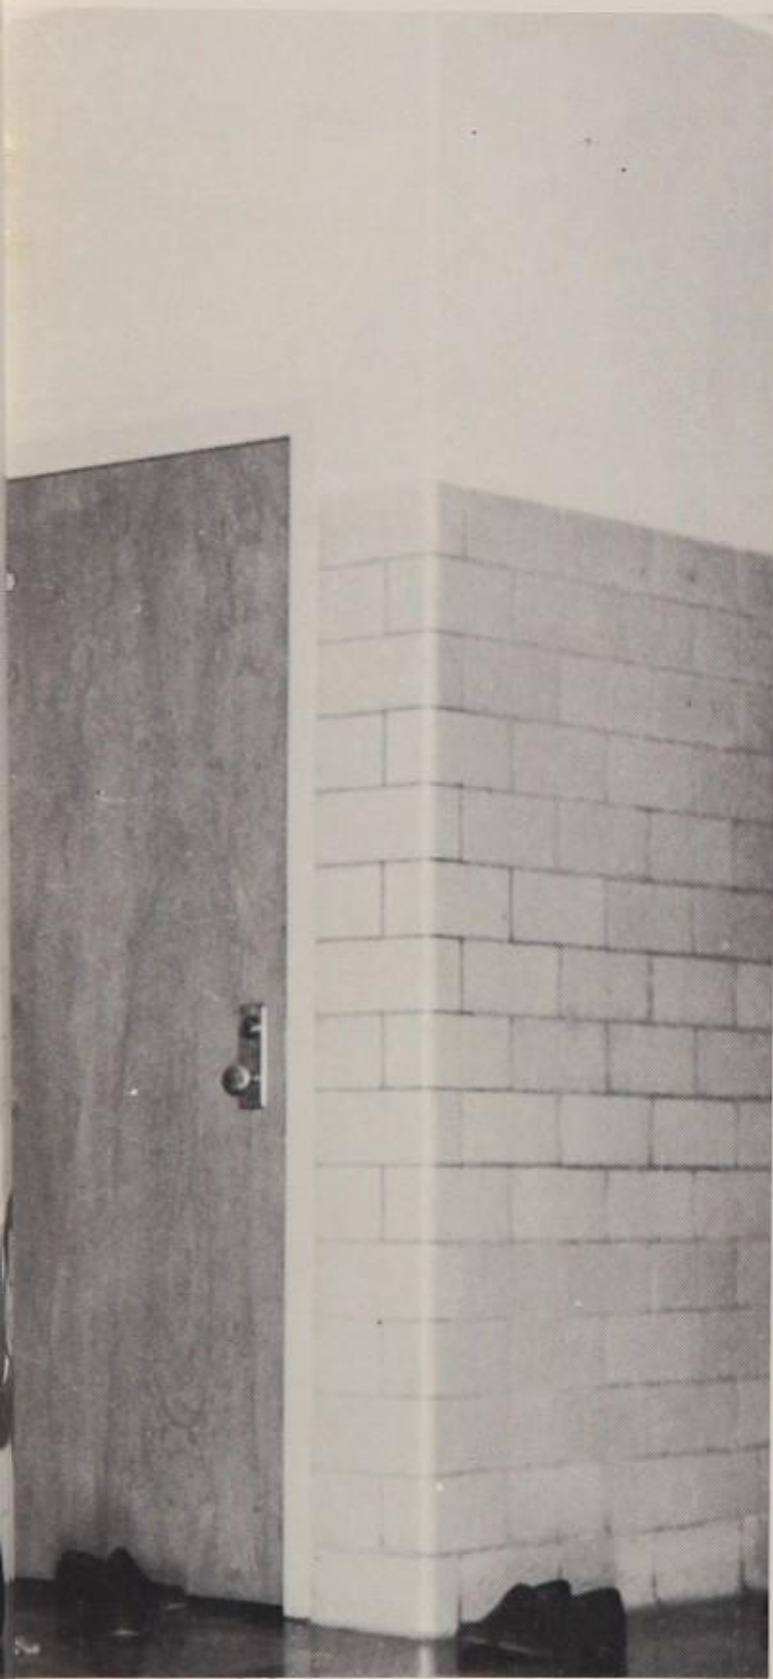

TOGETHERNESS

CLASS OF

But . . . we're leaders!

1962

A busy year has been spent by the Junior class. The first project, after the election of officers and class council, was the organization and carrying out of the magazine drive. The goal was nearly hit and at the dinner, where prizes were awarded, everyone found their part helped to make it a success. The top prize was a typewriter and then a drawing was held for the Decca-Stereo record player.

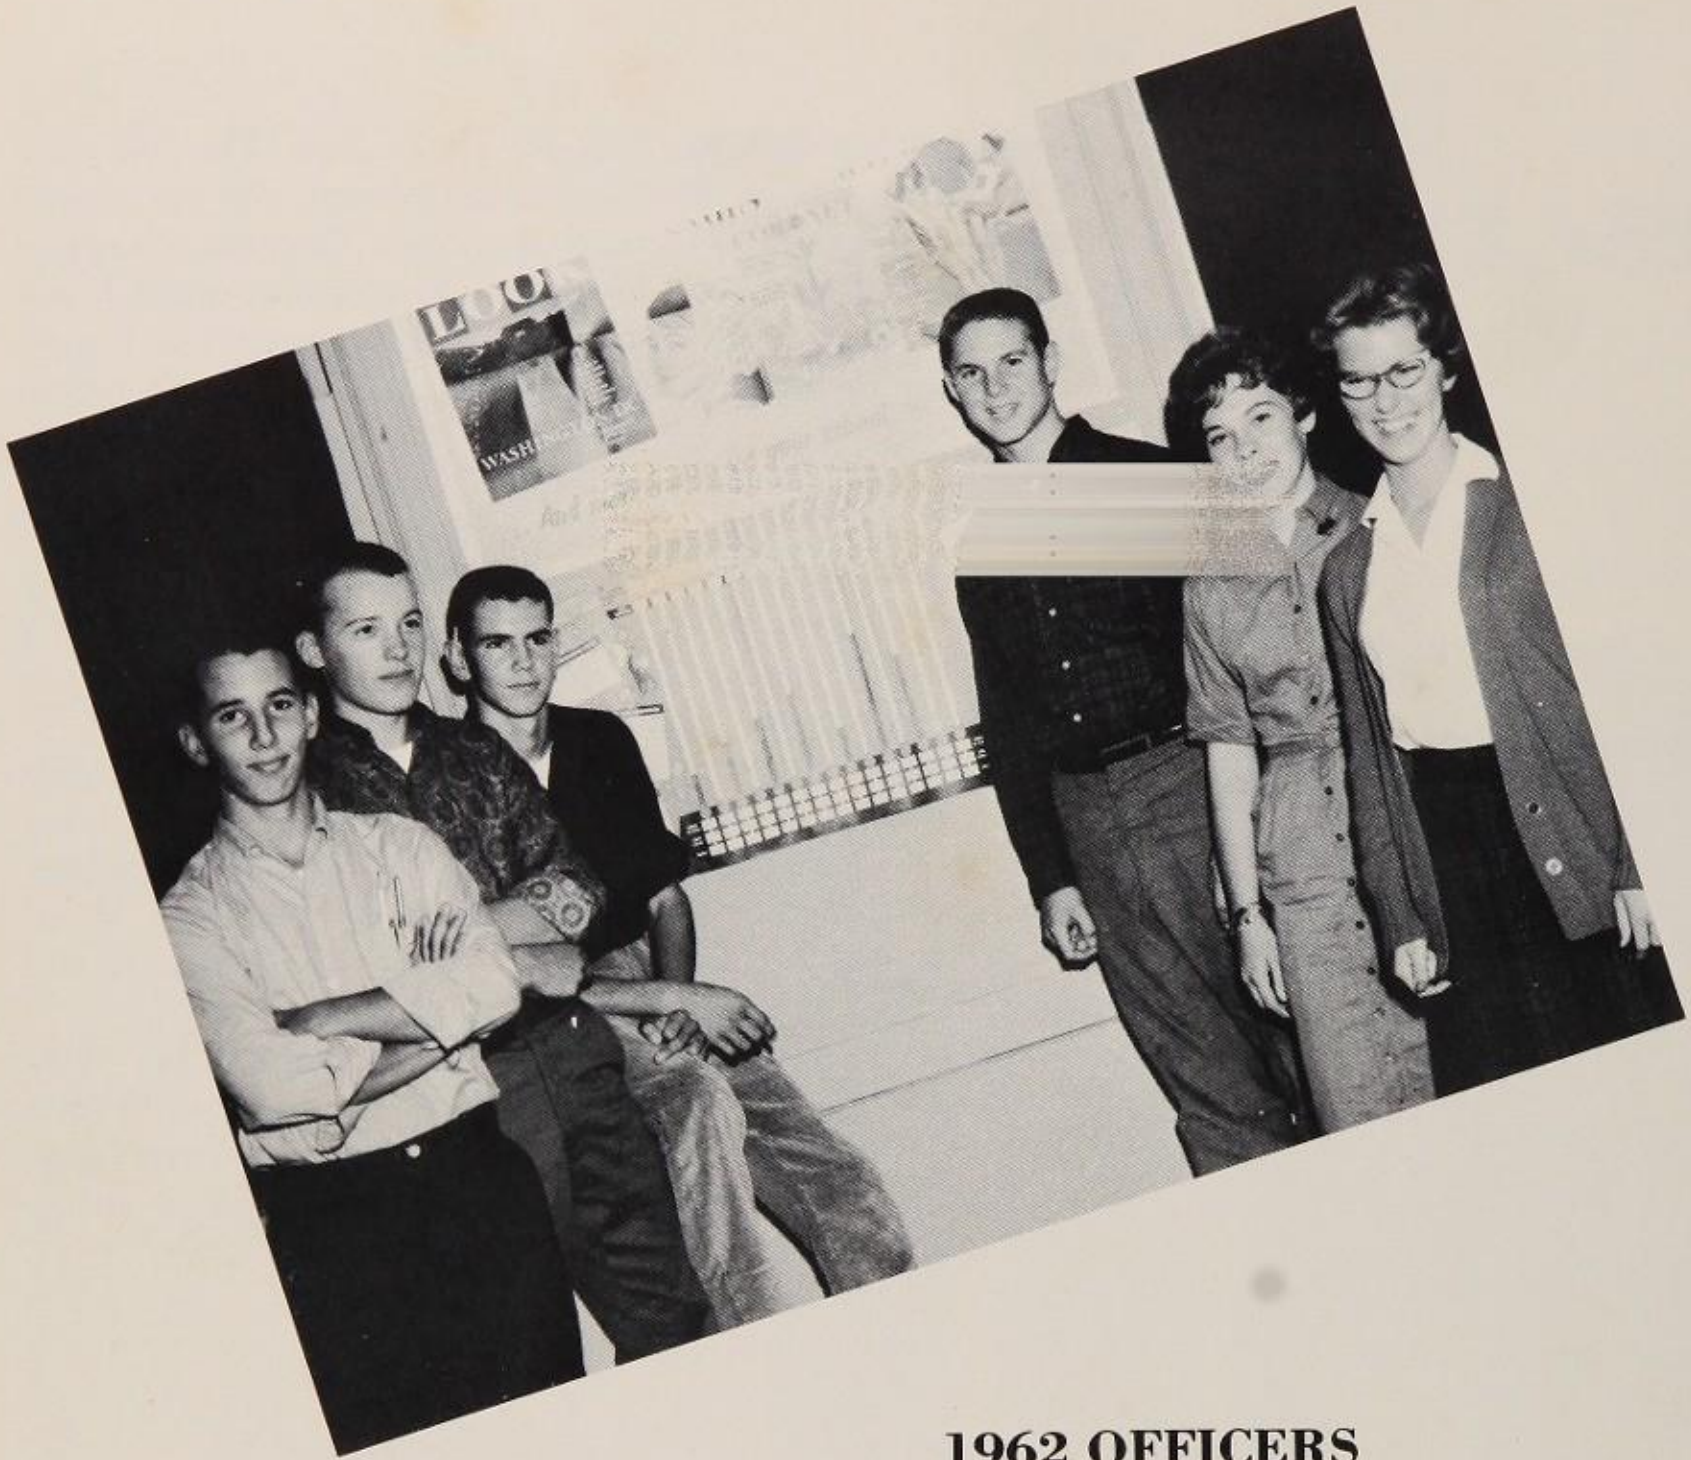

Wanting it to be the best one they ever had, all juniors "pitched in en masse" to help make the class party the huge success it was. Although it was postponed, the enthusiastic support of the party on May 12, 1961, proved the whole class was finally working as a unit. Hawaiian Luau was the theme carried out from decorations and leis at the door to the dress of clamdiggers.

Early in the year, after wild and jam packed potlucks, the girls cheered on the fifteen junior boys on the football team as they boosted it to the co-championship. In the gym, girls were kept busy with dancing, badminton and golf. When the boys came in for the basketball season, the girls gladly took to the bleachers and thoroughly enjoyed again being able to cheer.

National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, Annual and Bay Window Staffs, all found the junior members were active and helpful. From fields of school-work and sports to honors and fun, every junior found a new place and a new maturity for himself as an individual.

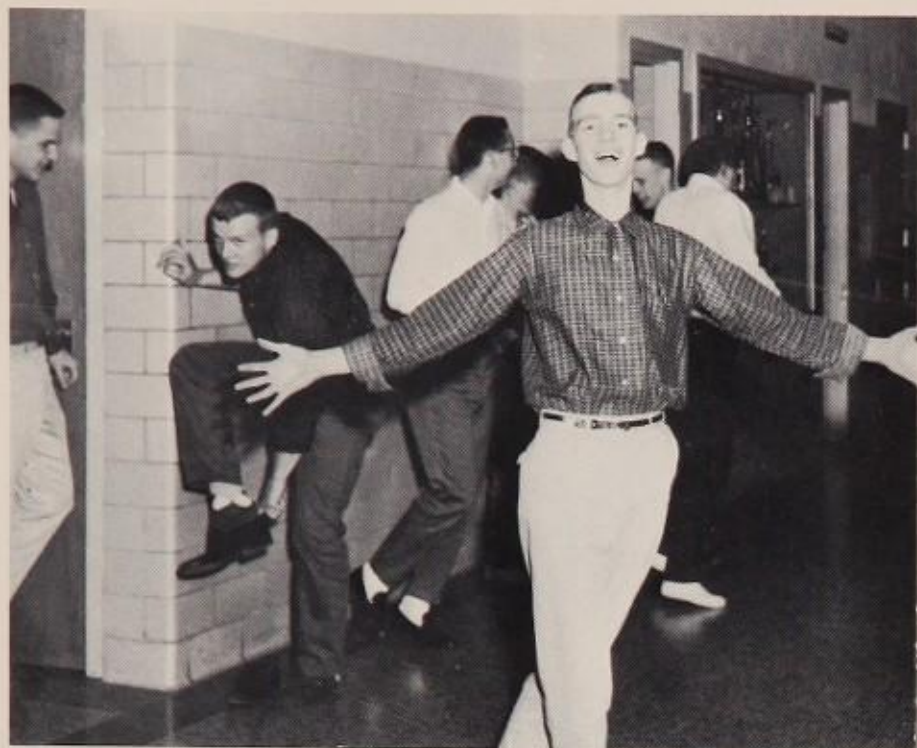

Substitutes aren't any fun.

Hi, Brad!

Mad practice before the tryouts.

For the first time, the sophomores have been unable to look to the underclasses for moral support. They could only look to the upper classes. Perhaps that is what has made them such an active and individualistic class. No one sits back and watches others work. Instead, almost every sophomore is willing to help out in almost everything and put his best foot forward in doing so. A good example is their class party which took place on March 17, 1961. The theme was the "Roaring Twenties" and everyone pitched in to make it a party they will never forget. A movie was shown called "Operation Madball."

If the sophomores were enthusiastic towards work, they were also enthusiastic towards sports. The boys did their job by doing their best in every sport they participated in and the girls theirs by getting behind the sports events.

In the past, cheering tryouts were held in the sophomore year. This year was no exception. The girls showed unusual pep and ability. A new system for judging the girls was initiated this year. The girls cheered before faculty members and nine girls showing the best co-ordination and ability were chosen. These nine girls went before the out of town judges who selected three. Good luck to the new cheerleaders.

Led by their class officers and Miss John, the sophomore class has come a long way. All one has to do is observe the initiative and industry possessed by the classmembers, and he would know the class will go far together.

"Victory Will BE For Bay."

The Student Council is to Bay High as the President and his cabinet is to the nation. Both were formed in the interests of democracy, and both exist in the application of democracy. This year the Bay High Student Council made new headway — a new concession stand was created, Homecoming ceremonies were carried off without a flaw, and the Student Council bulletin board was kept eye-catching and up-to-date, keeping the student body well informed of their government's activities.

In order to become a member of this organization, one must be a junior or senior and possess the qualities of Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. BAY WINDOW KEEPS

The pounding of typewriters, the frantic search for a missing headline, the heated arguments or hilarious quips between the editors were typical sights and sounds at every BAY WINDOW layout session.

As editors, reporters, and photographers struggled together to combine news, features, and editorials in the best BAY WINDOWS ever, they gained an increasing knowledge of journalism and the importance of reporting events.

Now the typewriters are silent, the headlines are all glued down, the experience of producing a newspaper is over; but the unforgettable memories of sorrows, joys, disappointments, and successes will remain forever.

Let's get serious for half a second!

ANNUAL CATCHES SCHOOL LIFE

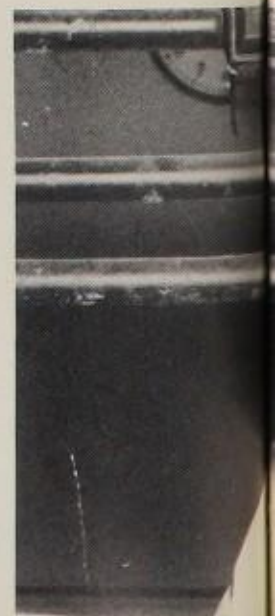

Each year a staff of juniors and seniors capture the events of the year and records them in words and pictures. The result is the BAY BLUE BOOK. The staff strives to make the annual better and better each year by attending a summer seminary at Ohio University and devoting all free time to the production of the book. The Annual represents all sides of school life — the tears, the laughter, the cheers, and the . . . BLUE BOOK gets better because the pulse of Bay High grows stronger. Here is your annual — the best ever, because You are the best ever!

ASPIRING ACTORS IN BAY PLAYER PRODUCTIONS

The Bay High Players has always been one of the most active school clubs. This year even more students were lured into the organization by thought of fame, fun, programs, or Miss Burt. The Players sponsored "The" dance this February — The Sweetheart. Meetings were made popular by excellent speakers from the entertainment world, and skits by the Bay Players themselves. The highlight of the season; however, was the Spring Play, "The Curious Savage." The play was in keeping with the year — lots of fun, some fame, and the directing of Miss Burt.

BEHIND THE SCENES HEROES . . .

THE STAGECRAFTERS

The Stagecrafters, besides being a necessary organization, is an honorary one. The few members voted into this exclusive club work their heads off for all productions performed on the Bay High stage. They are often seen, paint be-smirtched and tired eyed, but always with a grin for these behind the scenes heroes love their job!

Y-TEENS

Spotlight Dance

"To build a fellowship of women and girls . . ." — that is part of the Y-Teen purpose. This is exactly what the 10th, 11th, and 12th Grade Y-Teens did this year.

Y-Teens is a service club. There were parties for needy children at Christmas time, and octopi were made again this year. Many lockers were over run by these strange pastel heads with button eyes and numerous legs. The sophomore club which was really on the ball this year had a Slave Day which was very successful.

There were many interesting programs in the individual clubs. Surprise breakfasts were popular with the 10th and 11th grade clubs. The juniors took a trip to the Goodwill Industries. What ever happened to the carload that never got there?

This year the three big Y-Teen projects were split among the clubs. The seniors were in charge of the Snowball. Who will ever forget the lovely decorations? All those Christmas trees! The sophomores took over the arrangements for the Mother-Daughter Tea, which was made very enjoyable by the style show. The event that ended this successful year was the Pa-Ma-Me Banquet, headed by the juniors. At this time the new officers were installed who will make next year as much fun as this year was.

The American Field Service club is a club with a purpose — to get a foreign exchange student making organization — members had a bake at Bay High. The club is primarily a money sale, sold advanced tickets to the sportsman's show, and recruited several adult clubs as sponsors. The club has struggled, but their goal is within reach — a foreign exchange student is expected in Bay High in the fall of '61.

PRINCESSES OF PEP

Bay High has long been known for its vivacious cheerleaders and spirited cheers. With the help of adviser Mrs. Caldwell: Captain Annette Jones, Marilyn Turner, Donna Maynard, Nancy Bardes, Cheryl Steck, and Mary Hinzman, they have continued this tradition. The Bay High cheerleaders became famous for their frequent pep assembly skits; their new, longskirted look; and their many, many new cheers. The cheerleader's life is not all fun and glory, she must spend long hours in practice, she must keep her grades at a 2.5 average, and she must train a group of sophomore girls to follow in her footsteps. She must cheer, have good sportsmanship and be a good sportswoman herself. She must be an example of school spirit, good nature, and school citizenship.

PEP CLUB EQU

The pep club, with President Kathy Keller at the helm, are busy all year round giving Pep Assembly skits, making "beat" tags, cheering, cheering, and more cheering, and attaching thousands of signs to the walls of Bay High. The Pep Club could almost be called the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Bay High Rockets." Surely no other women's auxiliary takes better care of their men! In the halls, the Pep Club leaves their cheerful mark with the numerous morale-boosting signs: "Our Team is Red Hot," "Rocket to Victory." And at the pep assembly, where, cheering their team on, in cold, wet weather, the Pep Club is Red Hot.

The Bay High Choir, under the able direction of Mr. Curt Crews, has enjoyed a very rewarding year. It took part in the ceremony commemorating the Sesquicentennial of Bay Village by singing two sacred numbers. Featuring the "Singing Christmas Tree," its Christmas concert was the highlight of the holiday season. In late March, the Michigan State University State Singers came to Bay on tour. The choir joined in singing two selections with them, and the remainder of the program was presented by the Michigan State singers.

The choir's spring concert in May featured a variety of selections, ranging from the Negro spirituals, "Ride on, King Jesus" and "Ezekiel Saw De Wheel," to the somber Russian chant, "Hospodi Pomilui." "Dies Irae," a selection from Mozart's Requiem Mass, was also presented. In addition, several secular songs were performed, two of which were "Begin The Beguine" and "Brothers, Sing On!" The choir then concluded the concert by singing "The Lord Bless You and Keep you," marking the end of a successful concert and another inspirational year.

CHOIR SINGS IN XMAS SEASON

CHICKALETTES

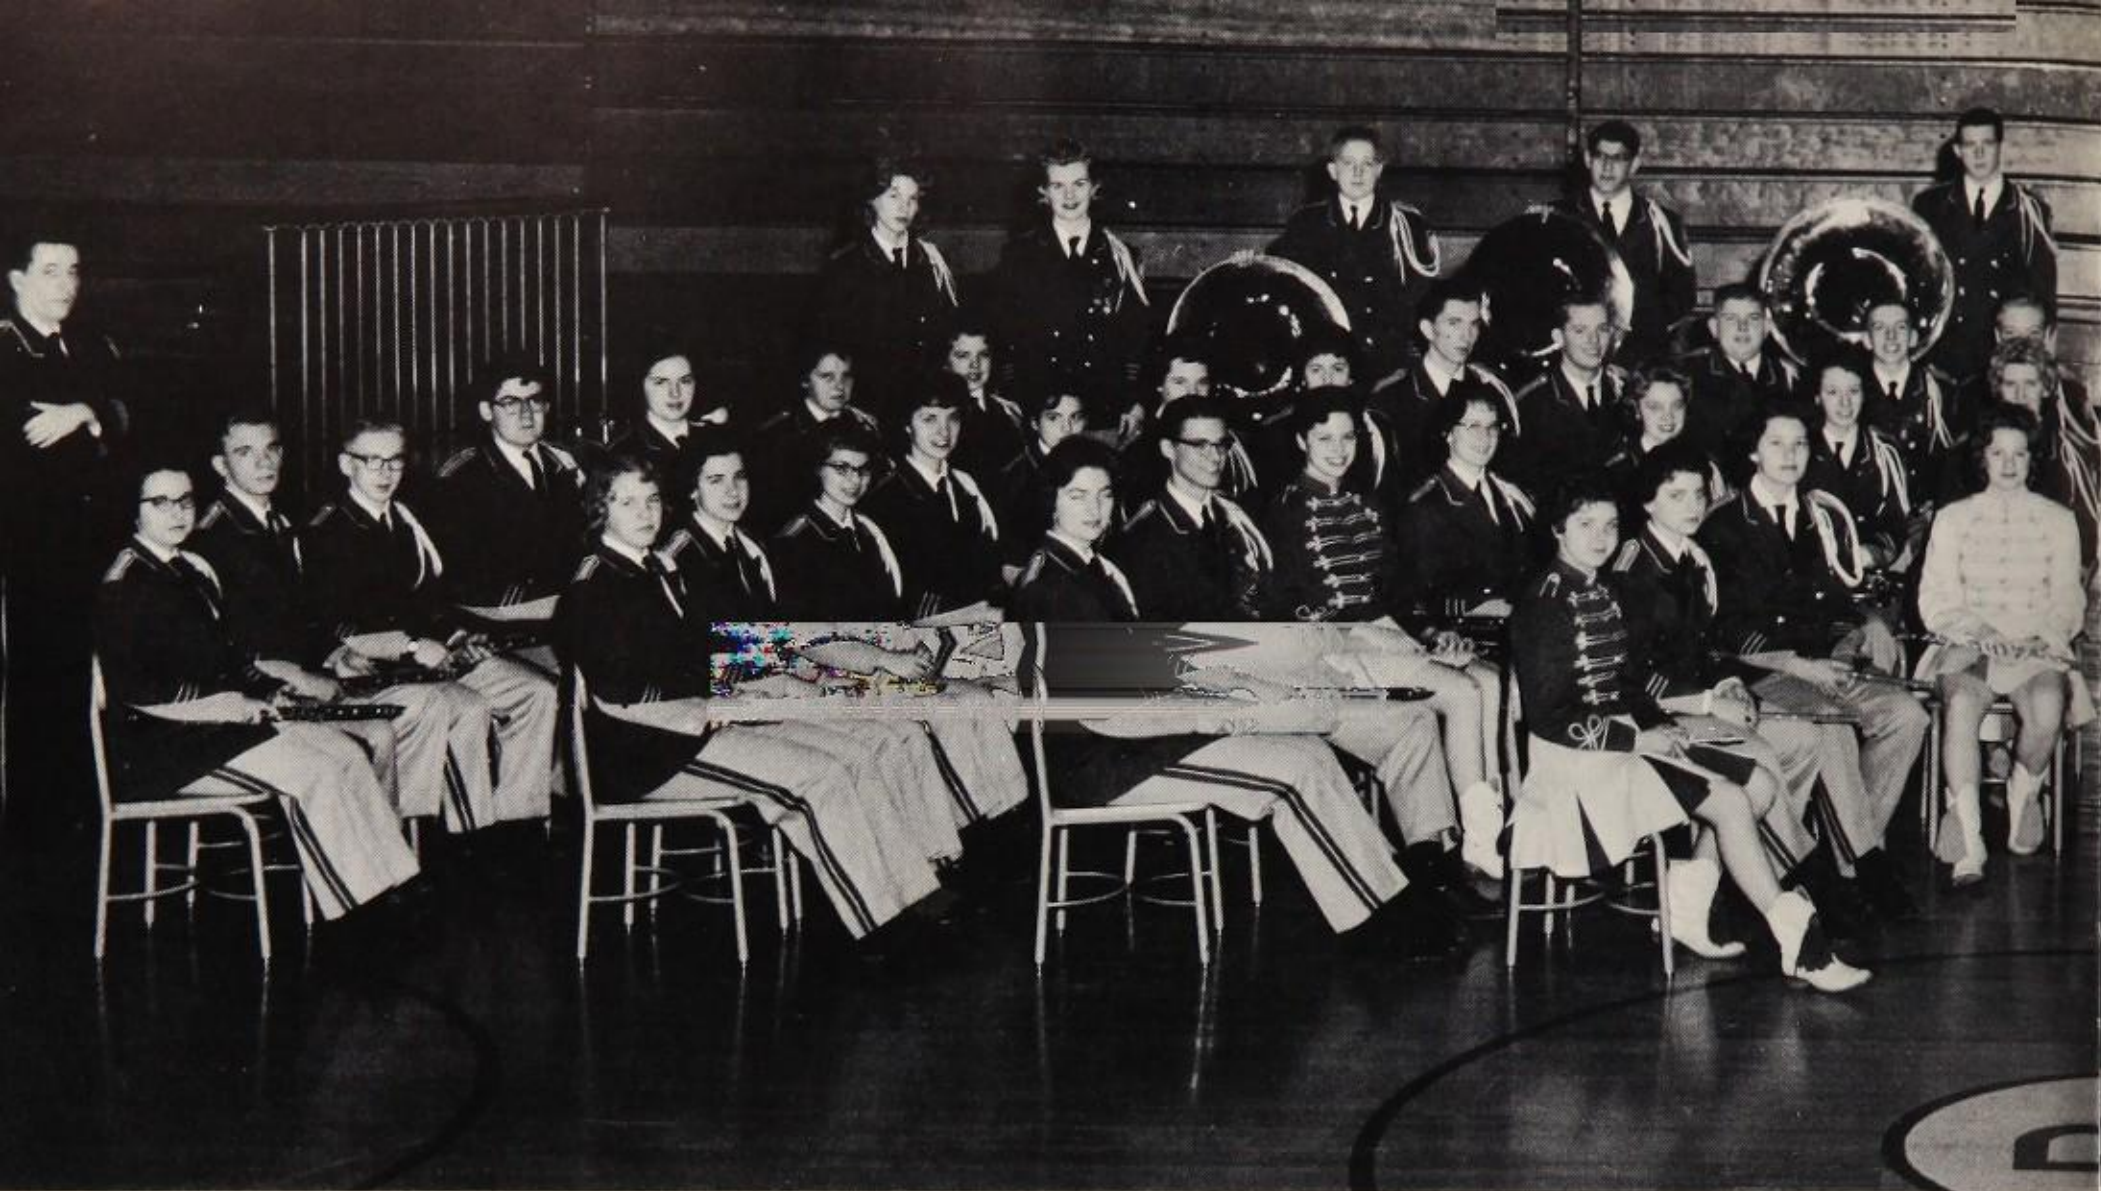

The choir's Christmas concert this year again featured the "Singing Christmas Tree." It marked the second year for this new tradition at Bay High. This year, a slightly different version of the tree was created by placing several choir members in white robes on the tree in the form of a cross. The rest of the members wore green robes and glittering metallic collars. Their gayly-colored candles twinkled festively as strains of "Oh Christmas Tree!" echoed throughout the gym.

The program featured several selections from The Messiah, including the "Hallelujah Chorus." Also several selections from Benjamin Britten's A Ceremony of Carols were presented, closing with "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

This concert constituted a climatic prelude to the Christmas season for all involved.

WARM UP

BASS SECTION

The band members will never forget their trip to Chicago. On Wednesday, December 14th, the band boarded a train and left for Chicago to participate in Chicago's Midwest National Band Clinic. The late departure of the train added to the excitement of the trip and enroute to Chicago there was considerable socializing, sleeping, and card playing. After arriving at the Chicago depot, the band members proceeded to the Hotel Sherman where the clinic was held and this was also the band's residence while staying in Chicago. After dinner, they were taken to their rooms and many went shopping or out to see the sights. The band members were awakened at six-thirty, Thursday morning to rehearse before their performance and at ten-thirty the long awaited concert began in the hotel ballroom. The ballroom was filled to its capacity long before the performance began, which was unusual at these concerts. This gave the band the encouragement it needed to excel. The concert being over, the band members went on a tour of Chicago, first to the Museum of Science and Industry, then they went on a sight-seeing tour of the skyline and finally to Chinatown. In the evening the band went to Roger's and Hammerstein's Flower Drum Song, at the Schubert Theater. Friday morning they left Chicago by train and headed for home with an honor and position few bands achieve.

1960 FOOTBALL TEAM

Spirit . . . desire . . . teamwork . . . these three qualities invaded the 1960 football team and drove it on in a victorious season which could not be dampened even by heartbreaking defeat in the last game.

The team started the season with an impressive 27—0 victory over Avon Lake sparked by Len Friedel's two touchdowns, then went on to defeat past North Olmsted 6—0 and defeat Olmsted Falls 27—16. Co-captain Tim Kohl came off the injured list to lead the team in a 13—6 victory over unbeaten Rocky River in one of the most exciting games of the season. Another impressive game, a 52—18 win over Oberlin, was highlighted when tackle Lynn Bolling galloped 85 yards for a touchdown. The Medina game, a 22—0 victory, placed the Rockets within one game of an S.W.C. title. The next week, Bay downed neighboring Westlake 22—12 to keep the Little Brown Jug and clinch the S.W.C. Co-championship. This perfect season came to a heartbreaking finish when Fairview upset Bay 8—6 and forced the Rockets to settle for a S.W.C. Co-championship with River.

The JV did not have a successful season, compiling a 0—3—1 record. They were a predominantly sophomore team, thus giving more young players a chance to gain experience. The reason for their poor record was that they played teams with a large number of juniors.

VARSITY SETS SEVEN SCHOOL RECORDS

The Rockets compiled a good basketball record during the 1960-61 season. They were runners-up in the Southwestern Conference with an 8—6 record. They finished the year with an 11—9 record, a great improvement over the previous year's record of 4—15.

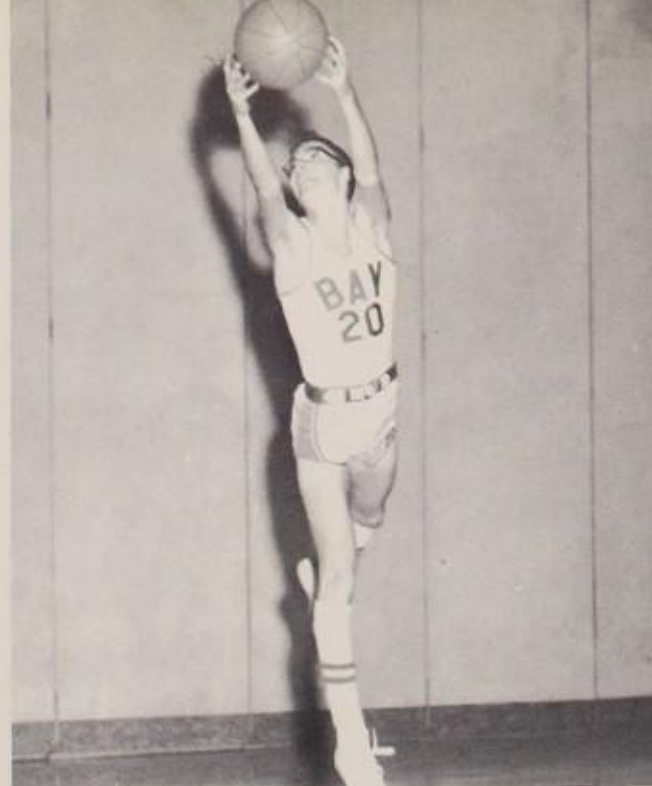

The season provided many thrills and much excitement with the Brecksville, Rocky River, and Strongsville contests being the best games of the year. With six juniors and the members of a tall JV returning, the Rockets are looking forward to a championship season next year.

Seven school records were set during the season. (1) Average offensive rebounds per game — 20.3, (2) Average defensive rebounds per game — 28.1, (3) Average total rebounds per game — 48.4, (4) Average interceptions per game — 9.7, (5) Offensive rebounds in season — Gedeon — 112, (6) Defensive rebounds in season — Gedeon — 151, (7) Total rebounds in season — Gedeon — 263.

J. V. GAIN EXPERIENCE

The JV did not compile an impressive record during the 1960-61 season, but its members gained valuable experience for next year. They beat every team in the conference once except Oberlin. With good shooting ability and better than average height they loom as the champions of future years.

NEW SPORT FUN FOR SPECTATORS AND PLAYERS

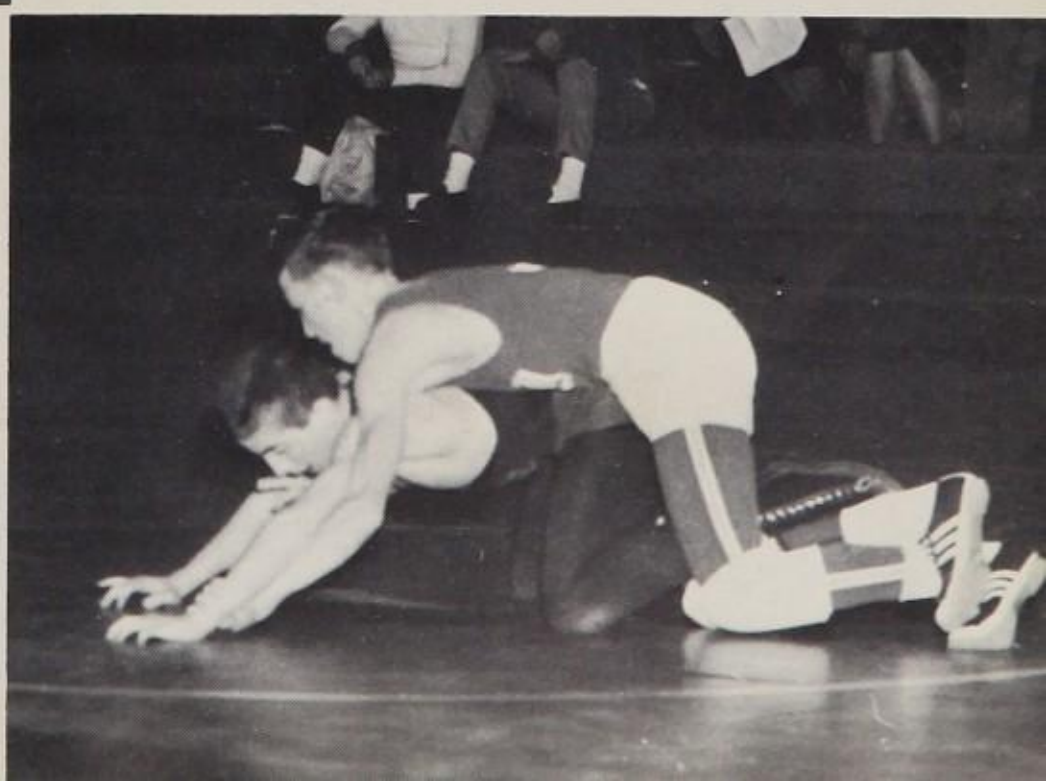

Under the leadership of Coach Polk, a new winter sport was added to the Bay sports' calendar. Wrestling, or "grappling," proved to be an exciting sport to both the student body and the team. For the students it provided an interesting spectator thrill and for the team, a chance to learn a new sport. Although our grapplers won only two of the ten matches they played, the team's rich in the promise of six returning lettermen.

KEGLERS ARE EARLY BIRDS FOR BAY

During the 1954 winter bowling season, eight Bay boys rose early each Saturday to strike pins for Bay High. At the end of the twenty week season Bay finished tenth in a field of twenty schools. High scorers were Al Nelson and Ben Chiswell with 153 averages and Roger Harris with a 152 average. The high series went to Ben Chiswell with a 153.

BASEBALL TEAM

SCORES HIT

The baseball team lived up to the expectations of the school body and coaches. The team possessed all the components which make a championship team—student backing, maturity, batting and pitching strength. With the aid of the spring sport's pep assembly, urging from Coach Llewellyn, and spring fever, fans poured from the confines of the school to the playing field to cheer the team on. Most of the team had the experience of at least one year of varsity baseball play; new power-houses were found in the bats and arms of Doug Larson, Jim Wells and Chris Clarke. With all these advantages, the team worked its way up to the District finals only to be beaten by powerful St. John Cantius' team in a thrilling fifteen inning game.

THIN CLADS PLACE SECOND IN DISTRICT

This year's track team was blessed with nine returning lettermen and considerable team depth. Several old records were smashed, and the team made consistently good showings at all the meets. We never finished lower than third in a meet and took a conference second to River's first. Although none of the Rockets went to the state meet, this shows the lack of individual stardom and the great amount of team effort that went into the '61 trackstars.

A REAL HOMECOMING

Homecoming used to be the "brainy season" at Bay High. Each year new techniques were thought up to make homecoming the biggest, most gala, and most beautiful ceremony in Bay High history. Floats and bonfires have come and gone, as have fanatic class rivalries and long, cold

Only a true homecoming was of the "spectaculars." Seniors still handkerchiefs poised, as in the old days. The gym echoes with cheers for Queen Marilyn Turner, and King Lenny Friedel and their attendants Kathy Keller, Tim Kohl, Donna Maynard, and Pat Redman. Past queens and old grads still sign the homecoming record books, and there is still hushed silence as the Queen reads the football players oath.

Homecoming 1960 was different in only one way — there were no such things as "class spies" or class arguments. Homecoming 1960 should be, a re-united of a large, close family, tears of happiness, shrieks of laughter, and the taste of victory.

OUTSTANDING SPORTSMEN RECEIVE

WRESTLING

The introduction of wrestling as a varsity sport brought about a new wrestling award. Presented in memory of Mr. Secrist, Doug Tashjian received an award for the outstanding senior wrestler and Chic Kennedy, the award for best all-round wrestler. Chic Kennedy is absent.

NELSON NARKS MEMORIAL AWARD

Introduced in 1958 in memory of Nelson Narks who would have graduated that year, the Nelson Narks award has been given each successive year to the boy who has shown himself to be an outstanding sportsman in a variety of fields. This year Pat Rodman received a tremendous ovation as he was honored for his leadership and sportsmanship.

ATHLETIC AWARDS

BOB BERGER AWARD

The Bob Berger Award is an old tradition at Bay. It has been given to the most outstanding Senior Trackman for more than fifteen years in honor of Bob Berger who gave his life for his country in World War II. This year, Al Gedeon received the highest award a trackman can receive for his outstanding drive and leadership on the team.

FOOTBALL

Several football awards are given each year in recognition of the various jobs a football player must specialize in. One award is given to the outstanding lineman — this year Chris Clarke. Another award is for the football player with the highest scholastic average — Al Budnick. This last is for the most outstanding all-round player — Len Friedel.

RAY KLEIN AWARD

Another young award is the Ray Klein trophy presented each year since 1958 to the most outstanding basketball player. This year the award went to Al Gedeon in honor of his brilliant three year career on the Varsity team.

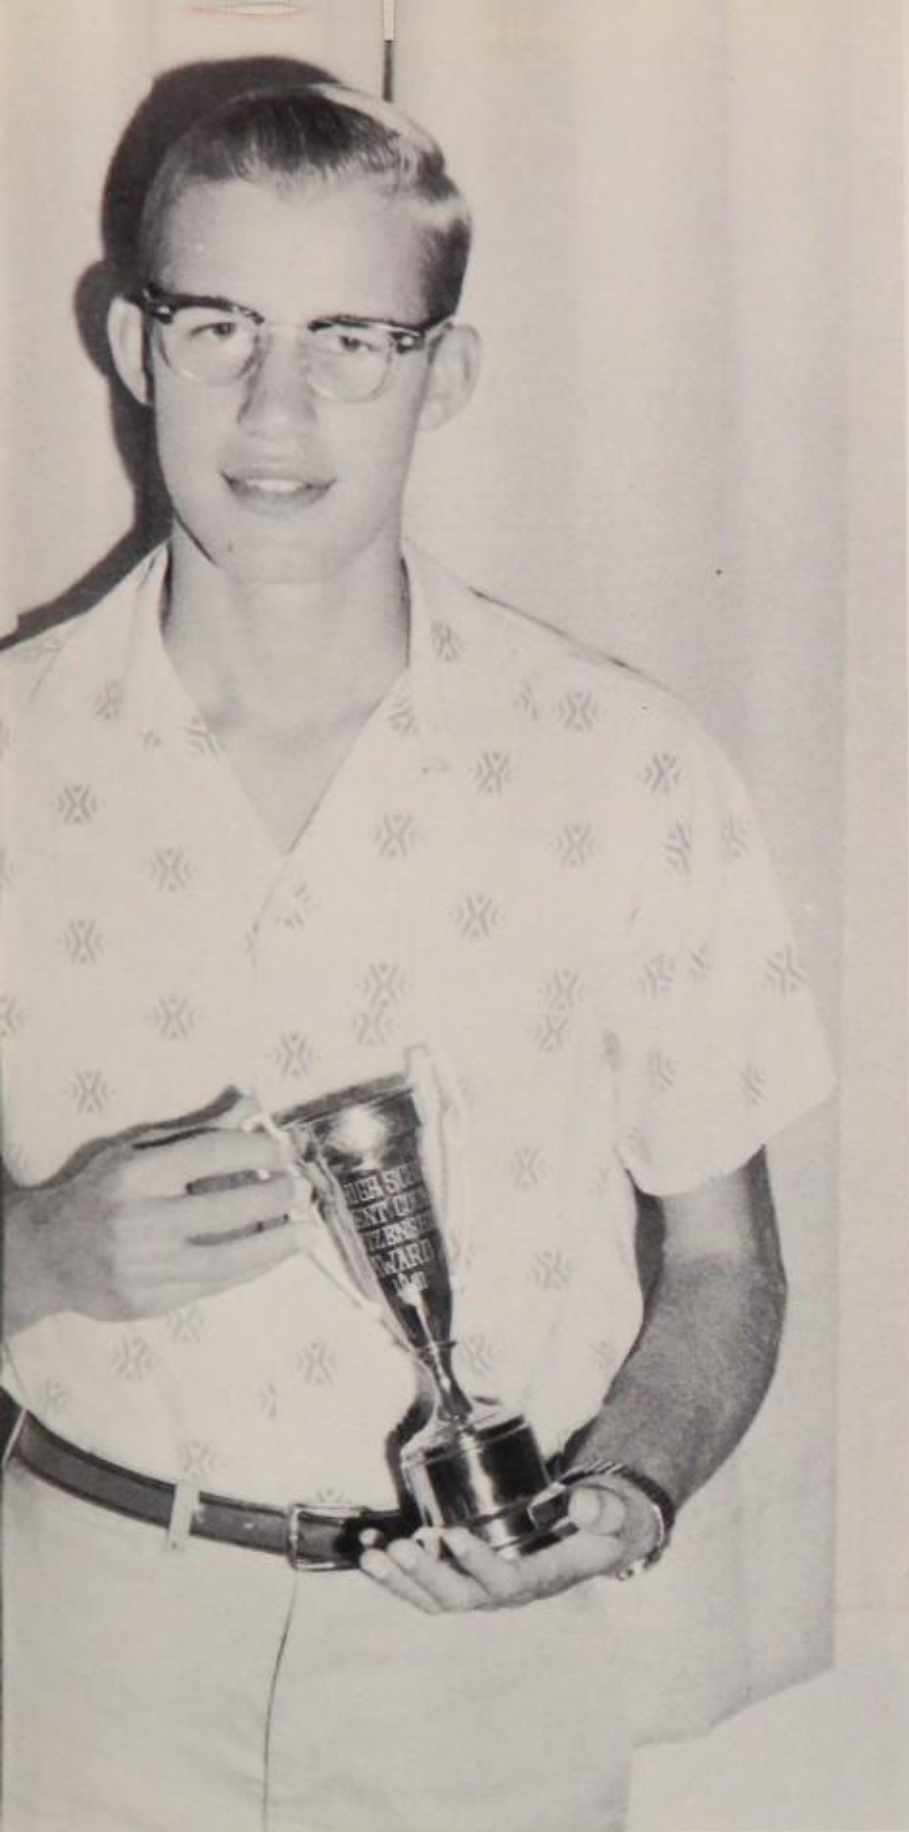

SENIORS RECEIVE CITIZENSHIP

STUDENT COUNCIL CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

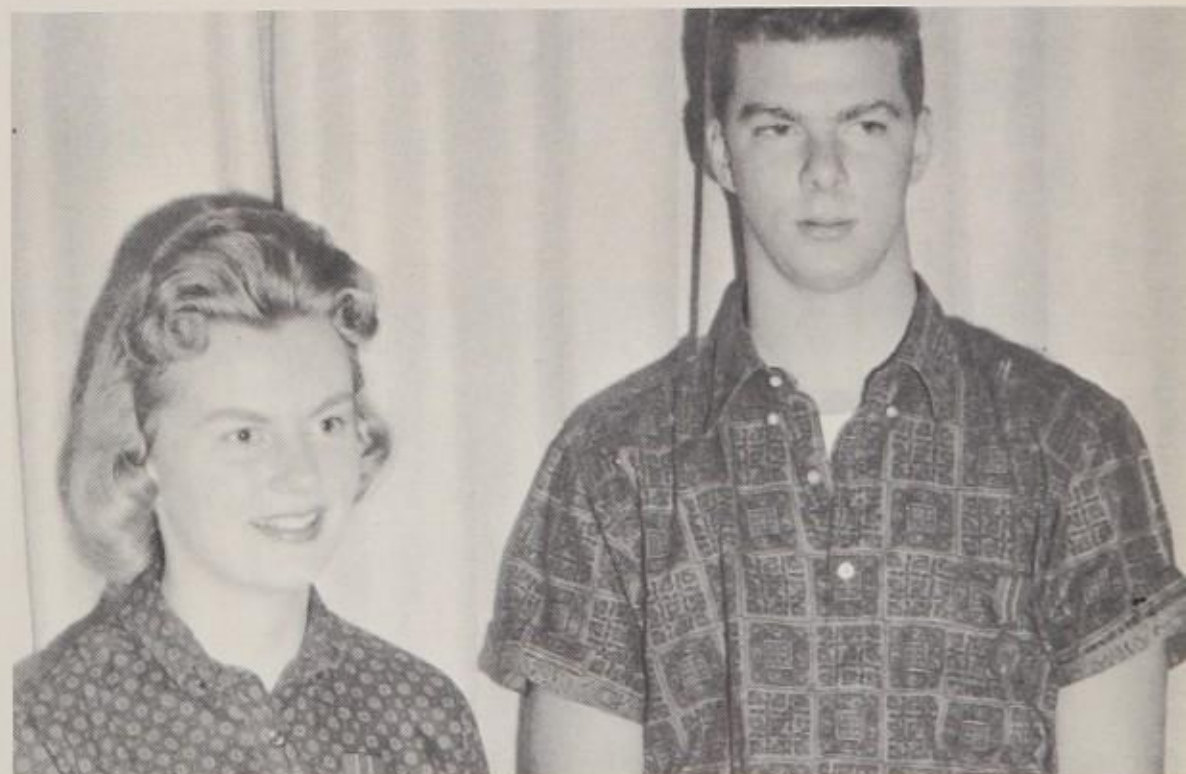

The Student Council Citizenship cups are awarded each year to a Senior boy and girl who have proved themselves to be outstanding citizens of the school and community. This year, Gretchen Philip and Craig Wilde were the twenty-first pair to receive this award since its introduction in 1940.

AMERICAN LEGION CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

Three years ago, the American Legion initiated the citizenship award at Bay. This is given to the boy and girl who have proven themselves outstanding in the area of honor, courage, scholarship, and leadership. This year Bard Bate and Ken Hook received this award. They took part in the annual Memorial Day parade and were presented with a medal and certificate from the American Legion headquarters in Washington, D.C.

AWARDS

SENIOR GIRLS WIN LAURELS AT GIRLS' AWARDS ASSEMBLY

FAUBEL AWARD

One of the most important awards given to a Bay High girl is the Faubel Award. Started at the first annual girls' awards assembly, in 1958, it holds a place comparable to the boys' Nelson Narks award. This year Marilyn Turner was honored with the Jean Faubel Award for her excellence in school spirit, leadership, scholarship, and citizenship.

GARDENIA AWARDS

Each year a group of Senior girls are given a Gardenia for recognition of outstanding service. The number of awards is flexible, depending upon the number of girls who are eligible. This year, Gardenia awards went to Linda Bardes, Cheryl Cooke, Barb Bate, Cynthia Cady, Sue Grossmann, Pam Hollister, Annette Jones, Kathy Keller, Kathy Mally, Carol Wendler, Marilyn Turner, and Gretchen Philip.

COMMERCIAL AWARDS

This year a new award was given to a senior girl. Based on secretarial Skills, Annette Jones was given the Commercial award.

ROTARY SPEECH

"In two hours you are going to die" was Craig Wilde's opening statement as he won the honor of representing Bay in the Lakewood Rotary speech contest. His speech, taking the negative stand on the question, "Does the death penalty serve any useful purpose in our society?" took a fifth place in the actual contest which gave him a hundred dollars.

T. V. SCRIPT

Bay has a long reputation for winning laurels in the annual Anti-Tuberculosis League's T.V. script writing competition. This year was no exception. Kathie Geffine and Bobbie Spangle won first prize in the contest and a trip to Washington, D.C., which they took on April 11 and 12.

SENIORS WIN CONTESTS

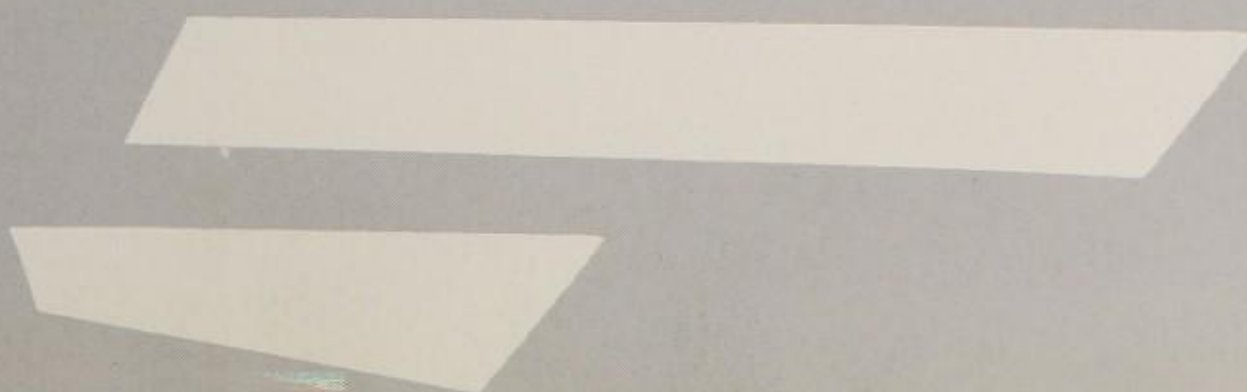

BAUSCH AND LOMB AWARD

Hank Shay, this year, added another name to his list of academic awards. He was presented with the Bausch and Lomb Award for outstanding work in science. The prize was well earned, for Hank was later chosen as one of the Cleveland area high school representatives to the Science Fair in Chicago, Illinois.

PATHWAY TO SUCCESS . . .

LEADERSHIP

SENIORS BECOME SCHOOL LEADERS

Somewhere between Junior and Senior year, the class of '61 emerged from its chrysalis of childhood. The seniors became brilliant social butterflies and, more often the case, moths clinging closely to late night lights. Senior year, though far from the easiest, was certainly the most enjoyable. The year was filled with college applications: college acceptances; many, many theses; tests, tests, tests; sleepless nights; the Gold Diggers Ball; the prom; Baccalaureate Sunday; and at long last — Graduation.

Senior year is also something less tangible. Senior year is an emotion, a duty, and a challenge. A Senior must not only take the prescribed Senior courses, he must act the part of a leader at all times. He must be an example to the underclassmen, he must be the personification of school spirit, he must be a good school citizen, he must be prepared to face the outside world. In short, a Senior must be the soul of his school.

CLASS COUNCIL DIRECTS SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Under the guidance of Miss Marvel Sebert and class president Barb Bate, two students from each homeroom meet to discuss senior activities. The outcome of this council is a more unified and satisfied senior class.

SENIORS COME "CHEAPER

"Cheaper by the Dozen" was presented November 18 and 19 in the Bay High Auditorium.

The play was about the large Gilbreth family with the action revolving about Father. Dad was always trying to economize on money and time. One of his methods was for the children to learn French and German in the bathroom.

What the children didn't know was that Father had a heart condition and had little time left to live.

In the end, all problems that had arisen were forgotten in a heart-warming scene in which the children learn of their father's condition.

While rehearsing for the play, many of the actors went through new experiences.

The property manager soon learned that one cast member disliked peanut butter, while all concerned in the play found out what teddies were. The family "pet," Sir Lancelot Spinmaker Hull, introduced many humorous situations both on and off stage.

The play, under the excellent direction of Miss Ruth Burt, was enjoyed by all!

SENIOR PROM

Seniors Dance in Polynesian Paradise

The class of '61 is known as the class with the "Midas touch." This became apparent when the class unveiled the most spectacular prom in Bay High history — "Kon Tiki." At six-thirty a.m. on May 27, the Junior High saw the first of the many senior workers. Twelve hours later, the workers stumbled home to don their prom finery, leaving in their wake a bridged entrance-way which spanned two pools — and two real turtles, hallways draped in cheesecloth fish nets and exotic sea shells, a pirates' cove complete with a working water fall, native canoes, and an unfortunate sailor tied to the stake, a beautifully draped girls' powder room, and a dance floor resplendent with palm trees, a native band hut, a running spring, and a refreshment hut filled with lua-type punch, sandwiches, and cup-cakes.

At nine, the proud seniors and their admiring guests were met at the bridge by native sophomores clad in muumuus. From nine until twelve the halls, pirates' cove, the powder room, and dance floor were over-run with neo-native students and their chaperones.

By Sunday evening the clean up crew had erased all the physical reminders of Kon-Tiki, but our little bit of Hawaii was still very much alive in the memory of the Midas with the golden touch of good times.

GOLD DIGGER'S BALL

"April in Paris" was the theme for the Gold Digger's this year. This is a traditional dance given each year by the senior girls for "their Guys."

The couples danced in a typical park full of trees, bushes, and flowers. At one end of the park was a side walk cafe and at the other an outdoor stage.

The entertainment took place in a cabaret and was complete with a Can-Can. Other skits included "Every Man is a Stupid Man," "C'est Magnific" and a take off on the guy's stag parties. For a finale the girls expressed their thoughts in singing "Thank Heavens for Little BOYS!"

The dance was a huge success and will be a memory treasured by everyone who attended.
